Title

Job Opportunities

Updated 17 December 2013

Corporate Fundraiser (Volunteer Position) Nairobi, Kenya

As part of its plans to broaden its donor base and diversify potential funding relationships, BirdLife is looking for an experienced professional committed, on a voluntary basis, to support efforts to develop and take forward its work with corporate organisations and High Net worth Individuals (HNWI).

Apply by 9th January 2014

The RSPB is recruiting 2 positions for the "Securing Liberian forest connectivity through community forest management and innovative financing mechanisms" project which is an exciting new EU-funded project building on the RSPB's long-term initiative supporting the management of the Gola Rainforest National Park in Sierra Leone and the 'Across the River, a Transboundary Peace Park' project. This project marks the first step to the long-term initiative to conserve the Gola Landscape in Liberia, a global priority for biodiversity conservation.

The RSPB is seeking a Project Manager to manage the overall operational and strategic implementation of the project and a Field Research Advisor to coordinate and advise the day-to-day field operations and implementation. Both positions are based in Liberia.

See http://www.rspb.org.uk/vacancies/.

Head of Conservation Programmes, BirdLife Project Office, Tanzania

BirdLife International is seeking to recruit an enthusiastic and experienced individual to head the BirdLife Project Office in Tanzania in accordance with BirdLife's mission and strategy.

Apply by 31st December 2013

Non paid Internships and Volunteering opportunities

If you are interested in volunteering in the BirdLife Cambridge office, please complete an expression of interest form (see below) and send to volunteer@birdlife.org.

If you are interested in becoming a volunteer at BirdLife Europe please send your CV and a cover letter to: europe@birdlife.org