

CI Women in Healthy Sustainable Societies - Application Guidance

Title

THE CALL FOR PROPOSALS IS NOW CLOSED!

APPLICATION

Applicants must submit a Letter of Inquiry (LOI) in English (download HERE). LOIs must be submitted electronically to BirdLife International at CEPF-EAM-SGP@birdlife.org before the deadline of 28 February 2014. BirdLife International will not accept hardcopy LOIs. You will receive an email acknowledgement acknowledging receipt of your application.

NOTE

Please refer to the CEPF Eastern Afrotropical Hotspot Ecosystem Profile for further information about the Hotspot HERE (PDF download, 4 MB). Also please read and refer to the CI Environment and Gender documents listed on the Resources page. In case you have any problems accessing documents, and/or if you have questions about the application process, please CONTACT US!

ELIGIBILITY

- Non-governmental organisations, community groups, private enterprises, universities and other civil society applicants may apply for funding.
- Applications from organizations that propose to build capacity of local civil society and community groups are particularly encouraged.
- Projects must be located within the sites and countries identified above and in the Ecosystem Profile.
- Organizations must have their own bank account and be authorized under relevant national laws to receive charitable contributions.

Government-owned enterprises or institutions are eligible only if they can demonstrate that the enterprise or institution:

- has a legal personality independent of any government agency or actor;
- has the authority to apply for and receive private funds; and
- may not assert a claim of sovereign immunity

Grants cannot be used for:

- the purchase of land, involuntary resettlement of people including displacement of land uses or impeding access to traditional uses of natural resources, or activities that negatively affect physical cultural resources, including those important to local communities;
- activities adversely affecting Indigenous Peoples or where these communities have not provided their broad support to the project activities; or
- the removal or alteration of any physical cultural property (including sites having archaeological, paleontological, historical, religious, or unique natural values).

BUDGET AND TIMELINE

A limited number of small grants (for up to a maximum of USD 10,000) will be available for projects to be implemented between 15 May 2014 and 15 February 2015.

THEMATIC FOCUS

Priority will go to environmentally-focused organizations that have identified a need for focusing efforts on better integrating gender or focusing on empowering women within their ongoing environmental work. Successful proposals will:

- Link women's empowerment or gender equality with aspects of the environment

- (e.g. protected areas, environmentally-friendly livelihoods, sustainable food production, environmental policy, freshwater, climate change, etc.).
- Enhance existing environmental programs or interventions (instead of a new activity) to ensure sustainability and long term impact
- Address at least one of the priority areas of focus :
 - Community-based capacity building, education and awareness that supports women’s involvement and benefit-sharing in environmentally-related activities – including community decision making and project implementation
 - Influencing policy-level decision making around gender equality and women’s empowerment in the environment
 - Information sharing and networking between practitioners and organizations working on gender equality and women’s empowerment to share knowledge, collaborate and strengthen a collective voice on these issues
 - Research to demonstrate benefits of incorporating women into environmental decision making and inform best practices (including tools, guidelines, etc.)

GEOGRAPHICAL FOCUS

For projects with a national-level scope:

- Projects will have to be located in Kenya, Tanzania or Uganda

For community-based or site-based projects:

- community / site-based projects will need to be located in or near a Key Biodiversity Area within the Eastern Afromontane Hotspot in Kenya, Tanzania or Uganda:
