

The Crimson Wing - Video

Title Walt Disney have chosen Lake Natrons Lesser Flamingos to star in their first wildlife blockbuster in nearly half a century. The Crimson Wing - Mystery of the Flamingos takes viewers to the isolated shores of Lake Natron, in northern Tanzania, for a birds-eye view of the mysterious and perilous lives of Lesser Flamingos. The film was premiered in Paris this week, and reminds the world of the threats facing one the worlds greatest wildlife spectacles.