

The IBA Local Conservation Groups Network in Chiapas and Yucatan Peninsula- México

Title Several BirdLife Partners are demonstrating success in establishing and coordinating Local Conservation Networks. This report is part of a project which aims to capture, document and disseminate these experiences and the lessons learned from them. To read this report, click here To read the World Birdwatch article on this report, click here