

The Conservation Leadership Programme - Video

The Conservation Leadership Programme (CLP) is a partnership between BirdLife International, Fauna & Flora International, Conservation International, the Wildlife Conservation Society and BP. Initiatives that the Conservation Leadership Programme supports include: research fellowships, scholarships, internships, and opportunities for network development - skills that are of utmost importance in helping develop future leaders within the conservation field.