

New guidebook for New Caledonia's birds

Title A new guidebook has been published by SCO (BirdLife in New Caledonia) which gives a concise description of the breeding, migratory and sea birds found within the Pacific country. Oiseaux marins, côtiers et des zones humides de Nouvelle-Calédonie by Nicolas Barré, Olivier Hébert et Frédéric Desmoulins brings to the amateur naturalist vital information needed to identify and learn about birds of New Caledonia, supplemented by information on threats and conservation measures needed. To find out more, please click the following link:
<http://sco.over-blog.org/article-deux-nouveaux-livres-sur-les-oiseaux-84637876.html>
Subscribe to The BirdLife Pacific Quarterly E-Newsletter