

Mark Avery's daily blog from RIO+20

Title

Dr Mark Avery, former Conservation Director of the RSPB (BirdLife in the UK), is a writer on the environment. Each day on 1-20 June he is writing a blog about biodiversity, sustainability and global issues ? such as the Arctic, rainforests, oceans and climate change. He says: "to come are New York?s water supply, neonicotinoids, coral reefs, how to feed the world and much more." Read Mark's daily RIO+20 posts Get Mark's posts via a RSS feed
