A Science-Policy Dialogue

CAP – Fit for the Future of Farming?

Tuesday, 21 November 2017, 9:30 – 17:00
Museum of Natural Sciences, Rue Vautier 29, 1000 Brussels

Agenda

09:30  Registration & Welcome coffee

10:00  Welcome address (Konstantin Kreiser, Head of Global & EU Nature Conservation at NABU)

10:15  Is the CAP fit for purpose? (Dr. Guy Pe'er, Helmholtz Centre for Environmental Research Leipzig and Dr. Sebastian Lakner, University of Göttingen)

  • What does the Fitness Check study say about environment?
    Reaction by Dr. Juan José Oñate Rubalcaba (Universidad Autónoma de Madrid)
    Q&A

  • Socio-economic findings of the Fitness Check study
    Reactions by Dr. Laure Latruffe (Institut National de la Recherche Agronomique Rennes) and Morvarid Bagherzadeh (OECD)
    Q&A

  • Is the CAP fit for the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)?
    Q&A

12:30  Lunch

13:45  TEEB Germany: Ecosystem services in rural areas (Prof. Bernd Hansjürgens, Helmholtz Centre for Environmental Research Leipzig) followed by Q&A

14:15  The Budgetary & Brexit Context for the CAP after 2020 (Prof. Alan Matthews, Trinity College Dublin) followed by Q&A

14:45  Coffee break
15:15 Panel Discussion: How to make the EU agriculture policy fit for the future?
With:
- Guy Pe’er (Helmholtz Centre for Environmental Research Leipzig)
- Sebastian Lakner (University of Göttingen)
- Maria Heubuch (Member of the European Parliament)
- Flavio Coturni (Directorate General for Agriculture and Rural Development)
- Tomáš Ignác Fénix (Vice President of the European Council of Young Farmers)
- Faustine Bas-Defossez (European Environmental Bureau)
- Moderator: Monika Höegen

16:45 Wrap-up (Ariel Brunner, BirdLife Europe)

17:00 Cocktail-Reception